POLO GROUNDS. NEW YORK, May 19.—About ten thousand people saw the Glants play their second game with Pittsburg—a nice little May party, where everybody was holding a clinched fist. No one was slugged yesterday and things looked quiet enough to-day at the start, but no one could say when Clarke and McGraw would get together.

League in batting. George Browne ran almost to the automobiles for a difficult fly from Howard. NO RUNS.

Fourth inning.

MrGann beat Howard in a race to first. Donlin caught Wagner's high, but easy, hoist. Clancy got on an infield hit through Devlin's poor judgment. He took second on Ritchie's clean hit to center. Leach was allowed to walk, fiking the bases. Dahlen threw Carisch out, sreatly to Pittsburg's dismay. NO RUNS.

Clarke was laying for Besnahan's long drive and got it. Mertes died on a grounder via Ritchie and first. Wagner got Dahlen on first bounce. NO RUNS.
